

19th Century Men's Clothing

As in modern day you will see festival participants dressed in many different styles of clothing. This is an example of the clothing that we loan to participants who do not have their own.

Some clothing you may not be familiar with:

Chambray Shirt: Chambray is a type of plain weave fabric woven with a white or unbleached thread crossed with a colored thread. In this case it is white and blue threads which give a soft worn look to the fabric.

Broadfall Trousers: Broadfall trousers have a drop front that goes from hip to hip and is fastened with buttons at the top. This is in place of a modern day zippered fly. They also have buttons on the waistband to attach the button suspenders (or braces).
