Experience Yesterday Today!

- ◆ experience authentic PA German folklife of the 18th and 19th centuries
- ◆ many costumed craftsmen teach the vanishing secrets of their arts; rope maker, wheelwright, tinsmith, blacksmith, cooper, gardener, seamstress, needleworker, hearth cooks and more
- ◆ visit friendly farm animals and ride in a horse drawn wagon
 - ◆ Kum Essa—try traditional refreshments, sausage sandwiches, fastnachts, shoofly pie, peaches & ice cream, and homemade root beer, just to name a few
- ◆ listen to an entertaining and varied stage program which may include folklife presentations, PA Dutch dialect singing, and a daily band concert
- ◆ tour the Henry Antes House, a national historic landmark, restored, owned, and operated by the Goschenhoppen Historians that will be open during Festival hours

Gemacht von Hand (Made by Hand)

Needleworkers stitching samplers and quilts, tradesmen handcrafting their wares, housewives kneading dough and making potpie noodles, the potter shaping redware, and children making cornhusk dolls. Discover the numerous items Made by Hand and how they were created by the Pennsylvania Germans during the 18th and 19th Century at the 52nd Annual Goschenhoppen Folk Festival.
